

A modern hotel lobby with a high ceiling featuring exposed wooden beams and a series of cylindrical pendant lights. Large windows on the right side offer a view of an outdoor area with a building and palm trees. In the foreground, there is a light-colored sectional sofa with several colorful striped and solid-colored pillows. Three armchairs with a curved wooden frame and light upholstery are arranged around a low, round, dark wood coffee table. The floor is made of light-colored tiles.
